Micro Sheet Crafts

Provides cable trays and customized rack solutions for retail, commercial, and industrial applications. Emphasizes affordable pricing and quality products. Offers custom designs to meet specific client needs.

Cable House

Supplies networking cables, glands, lugs, clamps, and cable trays. Known for durable and dependable products at industry-leading prices. Offers immediate delivery and excellent customer follow-up.

Pricing Overview

Exact prices are not publicly listed online, as costs vary based on material type, tray size, customization, and quantity. Suppliers like Jeetmull Jaichandlall and Brilltech Engineers encourage direct inquiries to provide quotes tailored to project requirements. Generally, perforated and stainless steel trays are priced higher than PVC or mild steel trays due to material durability and manufacturing complexity.

How to Procure

Contact suppliers via phone or email to request a quotation. Specify tray type, dimensions, material, and quantity for accurate pricing. Ask about delivery timelines, installation support, and after-sales service.

Recommendations

For industrial projects, consider Brilltech Engineers or Jeetmull Jaichandlall for high-quality, durable trays. For budget-friendly or smaller-scale projects, Micro Sheet Crafts and Cable House offer competitive pricing with reliable service. Always request certifications and compliance with local electrical standards before purchase.

By contacting these providers directly, you can obtain precise pricing, customized solutions, and reliable service for cable tray installations in Niger.
