While TRADINTE

R serves the Caribbean region with electrical distribution components, it primarily functions as a distributor rather than a local manufacturer. They represent major international brands like ERMCO, ECI, and EATON, which supply distribution transformers and electrical components. For retail purchases of standard electrical boxes and covers, stores like Do It Center Dominica offer a variety of pre-made electrical boxes suitable for residential and commercial use.

Summary

For custom or locally manufactured electrical distribution boxes, the primary options in Dominica are Burton & Company Ltd. and specialized electrical enclosure manufacturers. For international brands or bulk components, distributors like TRADINTER can provide access to high-quality products. Retail stores such as Do It Center Dominica are suitable for standard off-the-shelf boxes.
